

I am an allied medical professional with a client who is a 55-year-old woman with CP who lives in a group home. She uses a Lightwriter SGD to communicate. She is unable to produce intelligible speech, but can indicate yes and no by vocalizing. She could likely use VID-STS.

VID-STS can provide access to emergency services not available to many potential users now.